Local elected officials ask to meet with Gov. Chiles about Everglades restoration

By Brenda Bunting
Editor

Elected officials around the lake are asking Gov. Lawton Chiles to come to the Glades for a meeting concerning the consequences of the proposed plans to restore the Everglades.

In a letter signed by elected officials from Clewiston, Pahokee, South Bay and Glades County, the governor has been asked to support a plan that balances protecting the environment and preserving jobs in the Everglades Agricultural Area.

Belle Glade Mayor Steve Weeks said he agrees a meeting with the governor would be beneficial, but said he was not asked to add his signature to the letter.

"I agree we need to discuss this with the governor," said Mayor Weeks. "We are all concerned with the latest information we have been getting about this issue."

The Corps of Engineers held a meeting in Clewiston in December to talk about a new plan to restore the Everglades dispute.

In the letter, drafted by Clewiston's Mayor John Perry, Gov. Chiles was told that restoration of the Everglades eco-system could be accomplished without destroying entire communities.

"We understand that in January you will be unveiling a new plan to resolve these issues," the letter says. "As the elected representative of all the people of Florida, you have an obligation to support a plan that balances protection

Representative Tom Lewis to retire from Congress

Republican Congressman Tom Lewis announced this week that he will retire from Congress at the end of this term.

Representative Lewis, who will be 70 this year, said, he has served 12 years in the U.S. House of Representatives at the end of this term and given 30 years of public service.

"I believe it is time to leave the public world in which I have lived and worked these many years, and rejoin my family and friends in the private lives we look forward to sharing," he said.

"Serving in the United States Congress had been a distinction, a privilege, and a dream come true for a depression-era kid from the streets of south Philadelphia. I owe a debt to my family for their loving support and sacrifices in allowing me to pursue a career of public service.

"I am grateful to my constituents for the trust they repeatedly placed in me by returning me to Washington to represent them. When I came to Congress in 1983, I determined my primary goal to be constituent service.

"From that time, my staff joined me in honoring that goal. I am proud of that service. I am equally proud of my legislative and policy successes and achievements in effectively representing this district, the State of Florida and the nation."

Town meeting planned to discuss Everglades restoration

Canal Point Renewal (CPR) will host a town meeting next Thursday evening. The gathering will be for anyone who wants to better understand the Everglades restoration plan.

Recently, the Corps of Engineers scheduled several field hearings on a Science Subgroup report about the Everglades restoration. The proposal worries local residents because it would be best to get rid of farming altogether in the area, eliminate the sugar industry and allow sawgrass to grow across hundreds of square miles, says Roswell Harrington, vice-president of CPR.

"We have someone from every community around the lake planning to attend this meeting. All communities will be represented," said Mr. Harrington.

Also invited are the Palm Beach County Commissioners, Senator Mark Foley, Representative Addie Gross, Congressmen Tom Lewis and Alcee Hastings, and Representative Bert Harris and other elected officials.

The meeting will be Jan. 13 at 7 p.m. at the Canal Point Community Building. The Canal Point United Methodist Church plans a prayer meeting before the meeting at 5:30 p.m.

Three-car collision investigated by FHP

Tammy Jackson
Staff Reporter

Troopers with the Florida Highway Patrol investigated a three-vehicle collision on State Road 25, 15 miles south of the City of South Bay, on Sunday, January 2, 1994.

Those injured in the collision were Orlando Chavez and Manuel Munoz. Both men were transported to St. Mary's Hospital, West Palm Beach, after the crash.

Chavez remained in critical condition, however, Munoz was listed in fair condition.

According to FHP reports, a 1983 Datsun was headed south on State Road 25. A 1983 Toyota was headed north on State Road 25. A 1993 Ford tractor was heading south on State Road 25.

The Datsun crossed over the double-yellow line and in doing so, the Toyota was forced into collision. The Toyota was also forced to travel into the south bound lane.

The Datsun then collided with the tractor causing both the tractor and the Toyota to collide with the guardrail.

Belle Glade Fire Department receives donated fire hose

After Representative O.R. "Rick" Minton, Jr. of District 78 attended the dedication of Belle Glade's new combo pumper truck in September of last year, he was impressed with the public/private partnership that made the purchase of the new truck possible.

Rep. Minton returned to his home county fire department and arranged with Deputy Chief Barry Irwin to have their excess fire hose donated to Belle Glade.

"This is a good example of fire districts helping one another to protect their communities," said Rep. Minton. "I am glad I was able to facilitate this contribution."

In accepting the fire hose donation, Belle Glade Fire

Chief Tony Tuhano said, "Traditionally, fire departments have always worked together, and this donation represents our continued dedication to public safety."

On hand for the donation were Representative Minton, Deputy Chief Gary Merritt, Chief Ronald McCorkle, Lt. Brian Coughlin, and Chief of the St. Lucie County Fire Department.

Representing Belle Glade were Vice-Mayor Dan Bythewood, Commissioner Harma Miller, Commissioner Clay Connell, City Manager Lomax Hazelle, Fire Chief Tuhano, and Director of Public Safety Michael Miller.

The value of the 2,600 feet of hose was estimated to be over $6,000.

Man charged with child abuse after using juveniles to help rob Steve Moore Chevrolet

A Belle Glade man who allegedly was using underage boys to help in robberies was arrested Jan. 2 after a burglary at Steve Moore Chevrolet in Belle Glade.

Yaphet Curtis McGriff, 21, of 733 Linda Road, has been charged with burglary to a business, auto burglary, grand theft, dealing in stolen property and child abuse.

A security guard at Steve Moore Chevrolet, 1700 Palm Beach Road, caught a juvenile inside the fence at the car dealership on Jan. 1.

The boy had entered the fence by cutting holes in two places on the east side of the property.

Patrolman Kelly Reeves of the Belle Glade Police Department responded to the burglary and located two other juveniles believed to be involved in the burglary.

After questioning the youths, ages 16, 12, and 11, Patrolman Reeves was able to recover approximately $2,000 in stolen radios, CD players, speakers, and mechanics tools taken from the car dealership over the past two months.

The boys were charged with burglary to a business, auto burglary and grand theft and were turned over to their parents.

The next day Patrolman Reeves and Patrolman Angelete Green arrested McGriff, who is believed to be the ringleader of the burglaries.

McGriff was taken to the Palm Beach County Jail where bond was set at $6,000.

Eyewitness reports seeing man pushing shopping cart of goods stolen from church

A witness to a burglary called the Belle Glade Police Department and said the thief was pushing stolen goods from the Apostolic Church, 617 S.W. Ave. B, down the street in a shopping cart about 6:30 a.m. Monday.

The eyewitness later identified Roy David Smith, 38, of 793 Joe Lewis Avenue, Pahokee.

Two police officers responded to the call and saw Smith pushing the cart southbound on S.W. Sixth Street. In the cart were two wall paintings and a silver serving tray belonging to the church.

Police say Smith entered the church through an open bathroom window. He was charged with burglary and petit theft and booked into the county jail under a $1,000 bond.

Prisoners have it too easy.

I don't know about any of you readers out there but I think I know why there's so much crime going on.

With all the new jails being built, they're really nice, with air conditioning, heat for the winter, good food, good sleeping quarters, free phones to use, televisions in each cell or at least a big recreation room. They can go to libraries, etc.

I believe I'd go out and commit a crime. And they have all these freebies too. These felons aren't dumb. They know what side their bread is buttered on.

Instead of new jails being built all the time, I'd be taking that money and building new schools for our children! Get those guys out working on their own, cleaning ditches and canals and really give them some hard work without pay, instead of letting them live the Life of Riley.

And, by the way, who's idea was it to build these nice, new jails? Put them out there working too on the ditches and roads and let them see just where and why these guys are really committing crimes. It's because they have it so easy. Thank you.

Tired of obscenities

For what it's worth, while waiting my time at a local bank's teller machine, I followed a big young man in line.

His tee-shirt read "Back the #^@ off!". He got his money, and I deposited mine. Yet I nearly gagged to realize I had to be confronted with such a message. I wish I could cancel his account. Thank you.

Swimming, anyone?

I've been hearing a lot about building new canals through Belle Glade. I just wondered, I haven't read anything about it in the paper, but is there any truth to the fact that they may build a canal that would almost encompass downtown Belle Glade? I'd just like to know. Thank you.

NOTE: A Nov. 5 report sent to Asst. Secretary of the Interior Department, George T. Frampton, Jr., by the South Florida Ecosystem Restoration Group said the group's maximum plan was to return all former wetlands, including the entire Everglades Agricultural Area, to full wetland ecosystem function (i.e., marsh). Several hearings were held and more are scheduled. This information was in a November issue of The Sun.

Letters to the editor

Dear Editor:

I have always been very proud of the fact that I was born, reared and educated in Belle Glade. Today, I was saddened by what I witnessed in the Rite Aid Pharmacy store.

While waiting patiently (approximately 45 plus minutes) I perused the store and selected several items for purchase.

As I walked over to the hair care section, I noticed that there were security stickers on every Black hair care product in the store. I thought it was strange but I was not suspicious until I walked around the entire store, then looking for the same security stickers on other products.

Needless to say, I did not find that many security stickers on all items in any department.

Sincerely,
Calvin A. Clay

Jean Le Grand to perform at Cielito Lindo

On Saturday, Jan. 8, Capitol Records singer Jean Le Grand is scheduled to appear in Belle Glade at Cielito Lindo from 8:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. Ms. Le Grand sings a variety of Country-Western music as well as the Tex-Mex style known as Tejano music.

She formed her band in 1988 and has since done live acts at clubs and outdoor festivals. In 1993, she performed in Michigan, New Jersey, New Mexico, Ohio, and Pennsylvania. Her publicist said radio stations in the Northeastern part of the U.S. were so bombarded with requests for songs from her current album, Jean Le Grand Enamorada, that local record shops were having difficulty keeping her tapes and CDs in stock.

Originally from southern California, the blue-eyed entertainer now considers San Antonio her home. Even though she has a degree in law, she said she has doubts about pursuing a music career. While putting her band together, she spent two years as a reporter for KENS-TV in San Antonio.

In the spring of 1993, she taped a series on the Tejano music industry for Telemundo, an international Spanish television network. The series is currently airing on the program "Ritmo International."

In the fall, she was a featured speaker in Lubbock, Texas, at "Las Mujeres Hablan," a two-day conference of nationally renowned Hispanic women in the arts, sponsored by Texas Tech University. She was selected to represent the music industry.

Commissioner donates books

Commissioner Foster recently made sure the Zora Neal Hurston Roof Garden Museum's "Christmas Wish" bases were covered as he donated the first books for its library.

The gift came in the form of a set of Encyclopedia Britannica and Britannica Junior, which will provide a substantial base on which the museum's library will be developed.

A supporter of the museum, whose efforts resulted in the allocation of land inside county-owned Pioneer Park on which the museum's building will be located later in the month, Mr. Foster delivered the books in person on Dec. 30, 1993.
